

Faculty Rights and Responsibilities

Rights

To maintain the rigor and the fundamental nature of their course content.

To request verification of a student's eligibility for an academic accommodation.

Require students to demonstrate their knowledge of crucial course content.

Negotiate an academic accommodation with the student and the Resources for Disabled Students office if the accommodation seems unreasonable

Responsibilities

To implement best practices in teaching to reach a diversity of learners.

To share information on how students can request an accommodation. (An accommodation statement should be included on every syllabus.)

Work with RDS and students with disabilities to make reasonable accommodations in a timely manner.

Have an awareness of campus resources available for students and faculty.

Maintain confidentiality